Target Your Market...

When you advertise in Bar Briefs, you reach a select group of high-income professionals. More than 3,200 Louisville area attorneys and judges receive this monthly publication of the Louisville Bar Association (LBA). It is also read by paralegals, allied professionals, law students and their faculty. Many members make copies of Bar Briefs available for their clients to peruse.

Bar Briefs readers are a diverse audience. Many are young attorneys embarking on their legal careers. Others have been in practice more than 25 years. Our members practice in large and small firms, corporate offices, county and state offices, and the private sector.

Bar Briefs is:

- a monthly publication of the LBA
- issued the first week of each month
- circulated to more than 3,200
- distributed to attorneys, judges, paralegals, allied professionals, law students and their faculty, universities, libraries and more
- a national award winning publication

Bar Briefs offers:

- informative articles on current issues of interest in the law
- updated information about what is going on at the LBA
- news and timely information
- a balance of hard news & people-oriented pieces, making it widely and well-read among an elite audience

Display and classified advertising space is available each month.

Use your advertising dollars to target a special group of professionals. The LBA Communications staff will work with you to maximize your ad's impact.
